LISTEN TO WHAT A FEW MORE-THAN-HAPPY CUSTOMERS HAVE SAID ABOUT SLIPL0

Listen to what international spokesperson, model and car enthusiast Fabio has said about SLIPL0 Universal Skid plate on his Lamborghini Aventador

"The peace of mind I get from the new SLIPL0 uinversal skid plate makes all the difference for me. Now I can drive my Lamborghini anywhere I want without that nagging fear of messing it up. Makes driving much more enjoyable, especially around town!"

Former racing champion and movie producer Ali Afshar says

"My Ferrari 488 was notorious for finding every steep driveway around. I had to be extra careful, everywhere I went. I felt like an idiot sometimes. But now I don't need to worry. If something scrapes the underside, I know it's not damaging my car! That's a great feeling. Thanks, SLIPL0!"

WHAT ARE YOUR FELLOW SHOP OWNERS SAYING?

Listen to what Nathan of Los Angeles says about the money his shop is making

"The most amazing thing is that it almost sells itself! Almost the moment I called my customers, they were on their way in to get SLIPL0 installed on their cars! They love the convenience of having it done so fast. And since the price is a small fraction compared to others, my closing ratio was hovering around 90%. The truth is, the 300% profit margin I get to pocket is the best add-on stream of income I've had in years!"
